

Jeremiah K. Oeltjen

412 3rd Ave SE
Stewartville, MN 55976
(507) 251-6940
jeremiah@oeltjen.us

PROFESSIONAL OBJECTIVE

Design and implement interesting applications that will help end users improve efficiency and productivity in the workplace.

SKILLS

- Programming in various languages: Java, C/C++, C#, .NET, PHP, ColdFusion, JavaScript, Perl, HTML, SQL, and XML
- Object-oriented programming
- Internet/Web technologies

WORK EXPERIENCE

IT Analyst Programmer

Mayo Clinic Rochester, Minnesota 2015–Present

- Maintained and enhanced web based applications used by research staff for a major medical institution
- Provided technical support to end users for those applications when required
- Worked with end users to develop requirements and plan changes to various systems

Web & Software Developer

University of Minnesota Rochester Rochester, Minnesota 2011–2014

- Developed web based solutions for top higher education institution
- Participated in the design and implementation of the University's unique curriculum management system
- Implemented web based workflows to replace paper intensive processes

Programmer/Analyst

Rochester Public Schools Rochester, Minnesota 2008–2011

- Developed internal IT applications and tools for use by staff and students.
- Administered Microsoft SQL Server, Windows, and Linux environments.

Programmer

James Tower, Inc. Mankato, Minnesota 2006–2008

- Maintained and enhanced web based e-commerce engines used by customers to sell customized printed products.
- Used ColdFusion, Microsoft SQL Server, Java, and Microsoft .NET.

EDUCATION

Riverland Community College—Austin, Minnesota

A.S., Networking Communications, 1999

Winona State University—Winona, Minnesota

Computers science courses

Rochester Community and Technical College—Rochester, Minnesota

Computer science and general education courses